

Guest Talk
GUEST TALK

What's Online?

Museum Work and Exhibition Curation

July 9th, 2021

3 p.m. CET

online

with:

Melissa Marra-Alvarez – Curator of Education and Research

Elizabeth Way – Assistant Curator

The Museum at FIT THE MOST FASHIONABLE MUSEUM IN NEW YORK CITY

THINKING ABOUT WHAT TO DO AFTER YOU GRADUATE?

INTERESTED IN MUSEUM WORK?

Located in the heart of Manhattan, The Museum at the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT) draws in more than 100.000 visitors each year to visit their on-site exhibitions. MFIT's mission is to educate and inspire diverse audiences with innovative exhibitions and projects that advance knowledge of fashion.

Melissa Marra-Alvarez and Elizabeth Way will talk about the various stages behind the curation of exhibitions and educational work and programming at a museum. There will be the opportunity for a Q&A and you are welcome to any questions you have on what it takes to work at a museum and the behind-the-scenes of exhibition curation.

Please sign up for the event by sending an email to nadine.klopper@lmu.de. The event is free.